

After reading Poe's "The Purloined Letter," we learn that the Prefect of Police is quite the thorough investigator; however, it is Dupin who solves the crime. Create a structured overview showing all the places in which he searched for the queen's stolen letter. Then state in a paragraph the lesson learned from this situation.

The Purloined Letter

